POLITICS & LAW

1. Buchanan, James. Mr. Buchanan's Administration on the Eve of the Rebellion. New York: D. Appleton and Co., 1866. x, [1], 10-296, 3-8 p.; 24 cm. Publisher's dark green pebble-grain cloth with gilt-stamped spine title "Buchanan's Administration." Blind-ruled border on each board. Pale yellow endpapers. Publisher's advertisements on 6 pages following text. In pencil on front free endpaper: Patterson. Bookplate on back fixed endpaper indicates that the book was given to the Washington County Historical Society in 1911 by D.F. Patterson. Although this book was published without the author's name on the title page, the Preface is dated Wheatland, Buchanan's home in Pennsylvania. James Buchanan (1791-1868), the 15th President of the United States, failed to address the secession of seven Southern states, which led to the beginning of the Civil War shortly after the end of his term in office. He was widely blamed for the war, sometimes called "Buchanan's War." In this work, he sought to defend his actions (and inactions). In Good Condition: ends of spine and corners fraying; cloth separating from head along back joint; discoloration on lower spine; cloth slightly soiled; back hinge split; occasional soiling and pencil notations on pages. (#006090) $125.00

2. Ewing, James. A Treatise on the Office and Duty of a Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Coroner, Constable, and of Executors, Administrators, and Guardians; in which are Particularly Laid Down, the Rules for Conducting an Action in the Acourt for the Trial of Small Causes; with Approved Forms. Trenton, N.J.: D. Fenton, 1839. Third Edition. 591 p.; 23 cm. Contemporary full calf with five spine compartments between blind-rolled rules; blind-rolled border on each board. Inscribed on title page in pencil and ink: "Rhice Nicholas Book Price $3.00." Also in pencil on title page: "Presented to D.A. Nicholas By his Father R.N." At the head of the Preface, Rhice Nicholas also wrote that he purchased the book in 1839. Short handwritten index on back free endpaper. Felcone, New Jersey Books, 641. Rhice Nicholas was a justice in Morris County, N.J., in the 1830s. The section on slaves discusses the prohibition of the slave trade in New Jerse as well as other laws relating to slaves, with the form to be used for manumission. In Good Condition: front board attached only by cords; loss of leather at tail of spine and minor loss at head of spine; leather is rubbed; pages are clean and solid. (#006033) $85.00

3. Lawes, Edward. An Elementary Treatise on Pleading in Civil Actions. London: Brooke and Clark; and J. Butterworth, 1806. [6], 246 p.; 21 cm. Contemporary full calf with later repair in which a piece of white cloth was glued over the spine. Former owner's name on front fixed endpaper: J. L. Judson. Bookplate on back fixed endpaper indicating that this volume was given to the Washington County Historical Society by J. Carter Judson, Esq., in 1930. Inscription on front fixed endpaper indicating that the donor, J. Carter Judson, was the son of J. L. Judson. J. L. Judson was an active member of the bar in Washington County, Pa., in the 19th century. J. Carter Judson was admitted to the bar in the county in 1877; in 1892 he and his father formed a partnership. He served in the Pennsylvania state senate from 1911 to 1914. Very scarce. In Good+ Condition: old spine repair, as noted; boards are rubbed; old dampstain at page edges; some pages browning; otherwise, clean and solid. (#006035) $105.00

4. Senator Lester Hayden Humphrey and Governor Frank W. Higgins [photograph]. Warsaw, N.Y.: s.n., 1901. 1 photograph (12.3 x 17.5 cm.) on a mat (21 x 25 cm.). Inscribed on the back: "Senator Lester Hayden Humphrey Warsaw N.Y. Gov Higgins in Executive Chamber Albany 1901." Lester Hayden Humphrey (1850-1902), of Warsaw, N.Y., was Vice President of the Wyoming County National Bank from 1873 to 1888 and became president of the bank in 1890. He was also involved in the salt industry in New York state and in Hutchinson, Ks. He was a member of the New York state senate from 1896 until his death in 1902. Frank Wayland Higgins (1856-1907) served in the New York Senate from 1894 until 1902, when he was elected lieutenant governor of the state. In 1903 he was elected the 35th governor of New York. Although he is described as "Governor" in the inscription, this was taken in 1901, when both men were serving in the N.Y. State Senate. Humphrey died before Higgins became governor. In Very Good Condition: photograph is somewhat faded, but clean and intact; mat is lightly soiled, with small stain along right-hand edge; crease in mat along left-hand edge; corner rubbed. (6004) $65.00

5. Soto, Maria Estela Rojas de. La Constitucion de 1824 y el Municipio Libre; Lic. Estela Rojas de Soto. Mexico: Camara de Diputados XLIX Legislatura, 1975. 80, [4] p.; 21 cm. Light green wrapper printed in black. Maria Estela Rojas de Soto was a deputy in the Mexican legislature prior to becoming the first woman appointed a magistrate in Hidalgo in 1976; she was also the first head of the CDHEH (Human Rights Commission of the State of Hidalgo). In Near Fine Condition: wrapper is browning along edges; otherwise, clean and tight. Very scarce. (005953) $45.00

6. Sparks, Jared, editor. Correspondence of the American Revolution; Being Letters of Eminent Men to George Washington, From the Time of His Taking Command of the Army to the End of His Presidency; edited from the original manuscripts by Jared Sparks [provenance: Major Wm. H. Bean]. Boston: Little, Brown, and Co., 1853. 4 volumes: viii, 549 p.; [4], 554 p.; [4], 560 p.; 555 p.; 28 cm. Original grey-brown cloth with gilt-stamped spine title: Correspondence of the Revolution: Letters to Washington. Blind-stamped decoration on spines and boards. Pale yellow endpapers. Pages in vol. 4 are unopened. Includes indices by send and by subject. Bookseller's label on front fixed endpaper of vol. 1 for W.H. Lowdermilk & Co., Washington, D.C. Oval stamp on front fixed endpapers: Historical Society of Montgomery County, Historical Hall, Norristown, Pa. Additional stamp on front fixed endpapers indicates that these volumes were given to the Society in 1932 by Mrs. A. Conrad Jones, from the library of Major William H. Bean. Call number written in white at tail of each spine. Major William Heebner Bean (1861-1904) graduated from West Point in 1886 and joined the Second Cavalry; during the Spanish American War he served in Cuba. In 1900 he was appointed Captain in the Subsistence Department and promoted to Major in 1902. He and his father, Col. Theodore W. Bean (d. 1891), were instrumental in the establishment of the Historical Society of Montgomery County. At the time of his death, he was preparing a work on the movements of General Washington in Montgomery County during the American Revolution, particularly focusing on the time at Valley Forge. The donor of the volumes was Major Bean's sister, Mary Louise Bean Jones (1863-1957). A heavy set; for international shipping, they will have to be sent by priority international. In Very Good- Condition: ex-library, as described above; spines are faded; ends of spines are starting to fray; corners are rubbed; clean and tight. (#006032) $265.00
